A Handblessings design by Eileen Gurak

Stitch count 28 x 79

Fabric: 25 count Lugana Avocado.

Threads:

Wildflowers' Forest Fire, one strand over two threads

@ Weeks Dye Works' Pumpkin, two strands over two threads

Finishing: Cut backing material in half and sew rights sides together leaving a 2 inch opening in the seam (this opening is used for turning the bookmark right side out). Sew around the design 1/2 inch from the stitching. Trim off excess material and clip. Turn the piece inside out through the opening in the back. Whip stitch the back seam closed.

I hope you enjoy stitching this Handblessings pattern. Autumn is my favorite season and I think this little bookmark captures the colors and feel of the Fall. Wishing you a wonderful Autumn filled with lots of stitching.
